The Daily Courant.

Monday, Auguſt 1. 1720.

London, Auguſt 1.

Yeſterday arrived the Mail from Holland of Tueſday laſt, and that from France of Wedneſday.

Vienna, July 24.

COUNT Virmont late Imperial Ambaſſadour at the Ottoman Porte, made Yeſterday his publick Entry into this City on Horſeback; he went to the Palace of the Favorita, where he had Audience of the Emperour, to whom he delivered his Recredential Letters from the Sultan, in a Cover of Brocard; he afterwards alſo had Audience of the Imperial Family. On the 28th died here Baron Weyberg, who has reſided at the Imperial Court for theſe 18 Years paſt, with the Character of the King of Denmark's Envoy. On the 27th, Count Freitag, the Emperour's Envoy Extraordinary to the Swediſh Court, ſet out for Stockholm.

Paris, Aug. 2. In the Conference which was held on the 25th paſt at the Palais Royal, in the Preſence of the Duke Regent, the Duke of Chartres, the Duke of Bourbon, the Marſhal de Villeroy, the Chancellour M. Dagueſſeau, M. Deſforts, and M. Law, ſome of the moſt conſiderable Bankers of this City were called in, and the following Memorial was delivered to them, to give their Advice upon it.

THere have been made Bank Bills for 2600 Millions, whereof for 574 Millions have been burnt till the 23d of July incluſive: There are remaining in the Caſh of the Bank, to be burnt, for about 200 Millions, ſo that there remain in all for about 1800 Millions.

Three Methods have been made uſe of hitherto to call in the ſaid Sum of 1800 Millions, viz. 600 Millions of Rents on the Town-Houſe, that is to ſay, 500 Millions remaining beſides the Million already paid in, which ſhall be filled up with what remains of the Receipts of the Contracts not yet exchanged. 2. 600 Millions of open Accompts in Bank. 3. 600 Millions of Subſcriptions: Which together amount to the ſaid Sum of 1800 Millions.

But whereas theſe different Methods cannot have the Effect which may be reaſonably expected, but after a certain Time, his Royal Highneſs deſires each of the Merchants to give in their Advice in particular, concerning the Methods to be taken to re-eſtabliſh the Proportion between the Bank Bills and the Species.

Hanover, Aug. 2. Baron Wallenrode is arrived here from Berlin, from whence his Pruſſian Majeſty is expected about the 8th Inſtant.

Hague, Aug. 6. M. Anthony Heynſius died here on the 3d Inſtant in the Evening aged 80 Years, after having for theſe 30 Years paſt been employed as Great Penſionary of Holland, which Truſt he diſcharged with general Applauſe. The States of Holland and Weſt-Frieſland are to aſſemble on the 10th Inſtant. Major General Diemer being arrived from Sweden at Soeſtdyk, the Landgrave of Heſſe-Caſſel returned from thence to the Place of his Reſidence.

From the Gazette a-la-Main.

Paris Aug. 7. On the 3d Inſtant an Ordinance of the Lieutenant-General of the Police was ſet up, forbidding the refuſing of Bank Bills in Payment for Work, Goods, Merchandize, and other things, on Penalty againſt thoſe who refuſe them, of paying a Fine of the like Sum to the Profit of him who offers Payment. M. de Billy, a Gentleman in the Service of the Count de Charolois, who goes to Modena to demand one of the Princeſſes there in Marriage for the Count his Maſter, paſſed by Lyons on the 25th paſt, and has received Orders to haſten his Journey, becauſe the ſaid Princeſs is to ſet out from Modena the End of this Month, to accompany the Dutcheſs of Brunſwick her Grandmother, who deſigns to go to Vienna to ſee the Empreſs Dowager Amelia her Daughter, and from thence both thoſe Princeſſes will come to France. The Advocates and Procurators ſtill refuſe to repair to Pontoiſe: Some People are of Opinion the Parliament will be removed from thence to Orleans or Blois, others ſay they will remain there till the Vacations, and return hither after St. Martin's Day. The Affair of the Conſtitution begins to revive, and it is given out, that to the Inſtrument of Accommodation, which is in the Preſs, will be added the Opinions of the Biſhops who ſigned it, ſo that the whole will be a Book of 34 Sheets inſtead of Five. Letters Patents have been ſent on this Occaſion to the Parliament at Pontoiſe for regiſtring the ſaid Accommodation: They have demanded 8 Days Delay to examine it, and though they ſhould refuſe to regiſter it, contrary to what is expected, the ſame will be publiſhed notwithſtanding. It is likewiſe ſaid there are 25 Letters de Cachet iſſued for exiling the Biſhops who oppoſe this Accommodation. M. Law in order to be nearer at Hand to aſſiſt the Duke of Orleans in the preſent Affairs, is going to live at the Palais Royal, in the Apartments of the Marchioneſs de Nancré, who has other Lodgings aſſigned her. On the 5th Inſtant, the King, accompanied by the Duke of Orleans, the Duke of Chartres, the Duke of Bourbon, and the Marſhal Villeroy, went to view the Camp near Charenton, where there was a great Appearance of Perſons of Quality of both Sexes. His Majeſty being mounted on one of his little Horſes, reviewed the Troops, which are ſpeedily to return to Montargis, to work at the Canal there, which is very diſagreeable to them, becauſe many of the Men die at that Place; They have left above 100 ſick in the Hoſpital at Montargis, only of the Regiment of Champaign. The Actions are at 4800, and the Bills of 100 Livres are at 20 per Cent. Diſcompt.

London, Auguſt 1.

This being the Day of His Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, the Livery and Badge given annually by Mr. Doggett will be Rowed for as uſual by Six Watermen who are out of their Time this Year, from London-Bridge to Chelſea. They ſtart at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon.
